

Attending: Jennifer Whiteye, Councillor Maureen Cassidy, Councillor Elizabeth Pelozza, Roxanne Riddell

Welcome / Introductions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Roxanne welcomed everyone to the meeting and everyone had an opportunity to introduce themselves
Background information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Roxanne provided everyone with a summary of the meetings to date regarding LFA recommendation 1.6 Strengthen relationships and increase partnerships between municipal leaders, Indigenous peoples and community partners to create an Indigenous poverty strategy In 2018 and early 2019 phone conversations / emails Conference Call - April 2, 2019 Meeting in Windsor - April 18, 2019 – Joint Board meeting LDCC / SFNS Meeting at N'Amerind - May 7, 2019 Luke Nicholas, Raymond Deleary, Bonnie Smith, Jennifer Whiteye, Chief Myeengun Henry, Cherilyn Hill City Council request from LFA - June 2019 Roxanne provided everyone with the meeting minutes from the May 7th meeting (see attached)
City of London updates	Councillors Cassidy and Pelozza provided information on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> work that has been / and continues to be done on a Truth & Reconciliation report to be presented to City Council work that has been done specific to Truth & Reconciliation recommendation #57 work that has been done specific to Truth & Reconciliation recommendation #77 work that is being done for the Mount Elgin Residential School memorial the City of London smudging policy that was passed in September 2019 The City of London has invested in the Giwetashkad Project – to support the development of a homeless prevention plan for Indigenous individuals and families experiencing homelessness in London. Andrea Jibb from AtLohsa Family Healing Services continues to lead the development of the plan. Discussed the City of London's – Community Diversity & Inclusion Strategy – Indigenous employment strategies for by the City of London.
Next Steps	Councillor Cassidy suggested Roxanne follow up with Adam Thompson, Manager, Government and External Relation for further details on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the Truth & Reconciliation report to be presented to City Council work done for Truth & Reconciliation #57

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• work done for Truth & Reconciliation #77• an update on the memorial for the Mount Elgin Residential School• information on the City of London smudging policy• arrangements for a planning meeting to discuss a social gathering for some members of Council and Indigenous Leaders • Roxanne to follow up with City of London HR department – job postings to be sent to SFNS
Meeting adjourned	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Roxanne wrapped up the meeting and thanked everyone for their time• Meeting adjourned: 4:00 pm