Your local love has never been more important. Individuals and families already facing barriers—poverty, hunger, mental illness and social isolation—need even more help now. That’s why United Way is working to sustain the vital social safety net that thousands of people depend on.

When everyone gets a fair shot at their best life, our whole community thrives.❤

Join the recovery. Donate today.
Your donation, each hour of volunteering, every act of kindness—no matter the size—helps ensure United Way funded programs and services are there when people need them most. When everyone gets a fair shot at their best life, our whole community thrives.
